Reading – read the article to yourself and then aloud. Try not to insert filler words such as "um", "ah," "like". Our goal

Catherine, Princess of Wales, celebrates her 42nd birthday on January 9. Catherine, who often goes by Kate, was raised in Berkshire, England. She excelled academically and pursued Art History at the University of St Andrews in Scotland, where she met Prince William. Their love story culminated in a widely-watched wedding in 2011.

Beyond the fairy-tale, Catherine actively supports over 20 charities. Her areas of focus include mental health awareness, children's well-being, and military families. Her modern approach has reshaped the royal image, emphasizing relatability.

In England, Catherine's focus on youth development and patronage of the arts distinguishes her contributions. Her pragmatic style and commitment to service make her a beloved figure, bridging the gap between the monarchy and the public.
